INTRODUCTION

One thing is certain about you, no matter where you are -- you're one of the people who gets a lot out of life because you look beneath appearances and are willing to think for yourself, astrology being somewhat off the beaten track these days. So what is ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY*EXPLAINED? It's based on the common, instinctive idea that a person has different chances, luck, experiences or options in different localities -- that you aren't exactly the same person in New York that you are in Los Angeles. It works by looking at the planets' relationships to the places you've asked about at your birth moment. If a particular planet was especially powerful in the location noted when you were born, then the affairs that it symbolizes should predominate if you travel there, reside there or even have anything to do with that location from some other place.

Since 1976, when the now-standard ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY technique was introduced, wide acceptance by both the astrological community and the public has validated it. In addition, ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY has been able to benefit from the actual experiences of the thousands who have ordered its maps. The product of this experience is this new service.

WHY DO PEOPLE MOVE?

To understand how this information will be useful, perhaps we should question why people move around so much in the first place. In addition to the obvious reasons are psychological ones. Psychologists (Carl Jung especially) have suggested that people instinctively seek wholeness, or a completeness of their experience. If it's true that different locations accent different parts of your potentials, moving offers a way to speed evolution, to get acquainted with new parts of yourself. So if you find that a location you are obliged to reside at is one in which some of the more problematical influences predominate (such as Saturn, Neptune, etc.), you should look beneath the superficial and immediate desires and concerns of your life and try to understand what emerging consciousness has brought you here. Every location is good for something, and you would not be considering living in a difficult one for no reason. Also, don't get frightened if some of the interpretations sound extreme or perilous. Every planet has numerous possible manifestations, and, while we've tried to include them all here, rarely do the more extreme ones occur. The point in this report is to enable you to anticipate the nature of influences at your potential residence and so become able to recognize and utilize their most positive manifestations.

Different people are apt to react differently to the same astrological influence. You will feel more comfortable with what you already know, so certain planets will be easier for you to live under than others. For example, if you are a woman with traditional values, Mars and the Sun will possibly pose more problems for you than for a man, since the qualities and life experiences associated with these planets are not usually socially encouraged in women's upbringing. Similarly, men will find the Moon and Venus more challenging. People who tend to follow external authorities and believe in society's order as unchallengeable may find themselves more at home under Jupiter and Saturn lines, and stressed by new experiences under Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, while individualists and the more self-reliant will reverse these reactions.

You might find it useful to realize that, when faced with challenging astrological potentials, it is sometimes easy to "project" these onto your mate or partner, seeing the emerging parts of your own psyche as things THEY are doing. If your interpretations seem to fit your mate, realize that these things are happening because of possibilities in yourself that you aren't ready to face, and try to develop the positive sides of the astrological potentials described.

EVERY PLACE IS GOOD FOR SOMETHING

But the most important thing to realize is that every location is good for something; if you recognize and understand its potentials, you can use them constructively. You'll find that in some instances you don't even have to travel or live in the location -- that its influence affects you through people who come from there, or remote concerns, such as business, cultural or other life interests that symbolize those psychological potentials described by this report.

So here goes with the ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY*EXPLAINED analysis of the locations you're interested in. We hope it opens up for you opportunities to find what you're looking for in life; but we also hope it enables you to look beneath the surface, to see patterns in your own development and your instinctive growth toward wholeness.

Hollywood, CA

To understand the following influence, you should be aware that it is strong in this locality, though not overbearingly so. While reading the psychological description of its manifestation below, you should recognize the major theme that has operated for you (or will operate) here, though it may not be your prime concern at all times. You can ignore it for long periods, and this moderation of the influence tends to mitigate some of the more frightening and dangerous excesses that can occur. Probably, the more unusual manifestations won't happen to you, as this influence merges with others in your personality, creating a more balanced manifestation.

Venus-Imum Coeli:

IF YOU'RE JUST VISITING, YOU WON'T WANT TO LEAVE

This is an ideal zone for a vacation, romantic interlude, or investment. Love is a constant preoccupation, along with your own appearance, which can be improved here. Pleasures and the acquisition or appreciation of beautiful things and art makes this zone perfect for relaxation, enjoyment, and enhancement of self-image. Someone you meet here could either become a major love interest or in some way symbolize love to you. The aesthetically aware find objects and experiences to treasure, while the more financially minded find lucrative opportunities. The key word is pleasure, making this the perfect locale for leaving cares behind and reaping some of the rewards of your labors.

STAYING HERE: THE WORLD LOVES A LOVER

This location is affected by Venus, planet of love, marriage, art, relatedness, and interdependence, so it is strongly beneficial, a place where such concepts will predominate in your life experience. A deepened need for peace, happiness, and harmony, and a nostalgia for the wonderful (often associated with childhood), impels you to develop yourself into the image of your desire. Worshipping an aesthetic ideal, you strive to perfect yourself and will often realize, perhaps after disappointment, that much of the perceived beauty of others came from within. Mystically, Venus is the vivifying force of life, and under its influence you breathe vitality into yourself, motivated by Eros. Values and standards evolve as you internalize the perceived beauty and demand it from life in the future.

Beneath Romeo and Juliet's sentimentality lay their commitment to what they loved; by surrendering to the senses, you may here develop lifetime standards of erotic perception. And with these come the taste and desire for elegance and affection. The taste for what is refined and pleasurable can become an addiction, an idolatry of the beautiful. As you would guess, these key concepts of love and beauty have another dimension beyond the storybook agreeableness. Balance or harmony are the fundamental, underlying archetypes of Venus, for beauty requires instinctive recognition of what seems appropriate and pleasing in form and in harmony with its environment; love is a feeling of identification with such beauty in its simplest sense. The problem with Venus (or with love, as anyone who has experienced it will testify) is that even harmony must be balanced -- love, beauty, sweetness, and light, by being inherently preferable to what is dark and foreboding, invite an overbalance in their favor -- and so the psychological impulses toward the less desirable possibilities are neglected and repressed, only to erupt on occasion with frightening force: the demons of possessiveness and jealousy unleashed into the pastel world of Walt Disney.

THE ARROWS OF LOVE

The goddess Aphrodite, or Venus, ruled love and beauty, but she had a darker side, too, an irrational vengefulness that unjustifiably and cruelly punished mortals with little provocation. Aside from suggesting the painful side of love, this facet of her personality also warns that residence in the carefree, childlike realm of Venus must be paid for somewhere along the line, at best with increased inner knowledge. Narcissism is among Venus's negative aspects, a consuming love of self, and such self-containment and sterile self-regard is only possible when the outer world is being too kindly, supportive, and pleasant.

The stages of perception of Venus are widely diverse, beginning in a primitive, childish, frivolous, selfish, "mine" possessiveness that grasps at pretty things and people with unconscious singlemindedness. The inevitable "balancing" that results leads to awareness that fairness must be learned and that any relationship (including parenting) requires accommodation, patience, and effort. Finally comes at best an acceptance of self and recognition that you are as deserving a part of the universe as any other; beauty is seen to stem from within and is happily shared with others in an awareness that life is short and that transcendence of mortality can be found through love. Envy, usually of either inherited physical beauty or wealth, leads to an awareness that mortality makes all privilege and possessions meaningless unless shared. There is a joy and somberness in a fully developed Venus consciousness, born of the realization that pleasure, like life, has boundaries.

IS HAPPINESS ALL THERE IS?

The Venus zone, with its emphasis of pleasure and enjoyment, may bore people who are strongly motivated, active types or those who find the darker side of life and the psyche fascinating and important. Moreover, if you are already a rather lazy, unmotivated type, being in this zone may exacerbate those tendencies, leaving you with little reason to grow beyond yourself.

As a man, living in this zone poses special problems for you. Men in our society are not trained to think of themselves as beautiful, and Venusian concepts of peace, harmony, love, and beauty are sought outside of self almost always in other people, usually in women or children. While this means that in this locale you will be presented with ample opportunities to enjoy these pleasures, it is uncomfortable and threatening to a male ego to depend on externals for anything. What starts with the intoxication of unlimited credit at the candy store may end up feeling like addiction to security and lifestyle images. It is critical here to try to internalize Venus -- to accept that there is beauty within yourself, not just in your mate, possessions, or bank account, each of which may prove inadequately reliable after you have come to depend on it for self-validation. But before this internalization of your own beauty can occur, the perfect feminine image must be recognized, related to, and assimilated.

"BUT, I LOVE SHOPPING"

Now that you've been warned about all the things that might go wrong, it is only fair to mention that the Venus zones like this one are usually some of the most congenial and successful places for anyone. Friendship, mercy, benevolence, children's concerns, conviviality, marriage, romance, and often sex enter the life, and people whom you meet here (the most influential of whom may be women) may become lifelong friends. There is a childlike trust in happy endings, and you increase in attractiveness, becoming popular in a gossipy, teenage-type peer group. Of course, marriage and relationship are prime concerns, and this is a place where partnerships of any kind, and your potential for conventional happiness (whatever that might be) are brought to the fore. Marriage, which is apt to occur here, and all relationships serve to deepen your appreciation of yourself.

Money is also apt to be plentiful here, as are the nice things it buys -- you may develop taste and discernment, become something of a gourmet of sensation, and enjoy domesticity, good things to eat and taste with all the senses. Acquisitiveness is also likely to manifest, as will appreciation of pretty things, people, and pets. This is a good place to store wealth in investment, and often this location is one from which income is easily produced.

Things are valued for their beauty, so that artistic abilities and appreciation are central concerns in this zone. Religious images, little dogs, flowers, jewelry and adornments, mirrors, souvenirs, pastels, and luxuries are among the things prized, though tastes may deepen to include the most refined in the arts and music. In fact, things may pile up, as it's harder to throw away than to acquire. Artistic abilities improve and may achieve recognition here. Of course, many of these positive aspects can be pursued to excess: flowery unrealism in keeping with the Walt Disney image of Venus (after all, what does Mickey Mouse do for a living?), and laxity, dependence, laziness, and lassitude can occur here. Shallowness, vanity, and a tendency to wait for others to take care of things are dangers, as Venus usually takes a passive role. This zone is generally good for health, although overweight can become a problem (too many good things to eat), as can other negative results of excess. If Venus is entirely projected (not seen to be inside yourself), you will find that you are surrounded by beautiful people, whose presence urges you to perfect yourself.

A KEY TO YOUR LOVE IMAGE

This then is a prime zone for the development of sociability, grace, relatedness, cooperation, and your attractiveness. Even if you can't journey to or live here, you may find that people from this area or your dealings with it in connection with cultural concerns and relationships bear many of these potentials with them. Your perfected female image ("anima") may be encountered here, or even in art, a book or a movie from this area. People frequently marry people who were born somewhere on their Venus lines or meet them while travelling there. Dealings with this part of the world will serve to develop sympathy, ability to relate, creativeness, aesthetic sense, and, finally, a positive self-image and appreciation.

The particular position that Venus occupied in this location at your birth will direct this type of energy and experience particularly into certain life areas; while the most important thing to understand is the underlying meaning and psychological principle, these are apt to manifest more obviously in specific life areas than in others.

COUNTRY GARDENS

The position of Venus in this location stresses enjoyment and perfection of a nurturing home atmosphere either in actual, external terms or perhaps by making you feel more "at home" with yourself, at peace with who you are. Here, coming to terms with your experience of childhood is critical, and you attempt to relive it if it was happy or perhaps create a more nurturing and supportive environment for others and yourself if it was not. Your attitude toward home, family, origins, and background -- your past "karma" -- is center of self-perfecting activity, and, while this might well be acted out with children, who are important and usually present here, it also suggests a deep reformulation of your inner image, the result of which is a more moderate, harmonious, and kindly feeling toward yourself.

The physical home may be improved here, and it is most satisfying if rural, with gardens and green things. Luxury and contentment are sought in the home environment, which also becomes something of a social center. Domestic abilities flower, such as sewing, baking, decoration, gardening, even light farming, and the home becomes your favored milieu, in which you look best and feel most content. It is a locus of fecundity, with children, pets, livestock, bric-a-brac, and possessions seeming to accumulate of their own accord. Appreciation and affection for the family and loving friends deepens, children are apt to be born here, and you feel more secure and happy surrounded by a lot of dependents, rustic beauty, and space. Land, mines, and investments increase in value here, and decorative skills emerge. By surrounding yourself with beauty you are able to internalize it and feel better about yourself; peace and security are sought and attained here. Love may be experienced for the first time, as activities in this locale establish the image of contentment and harmony for the rest of your life.

This location lies a little to the west of the exact planetary influence; therefore, of the possibilities listed above, those which suggest the direct influence on you by your family, cultural, or ethnic background are the ones most likely to manifest. The planet tends to act outside of you, and polarizes your self-image in opposition to its more negative potentials, requiring by either positive example or direct coercion your development of the described qualities. Who you are, meaning in this case who your family, past, and "roots" have been, becomes a potent force in the creation of who you are growing to be, a force whose nature will conform closely to the description above. Living here will change these most inward of concepts of self, often by direct confrontation with your origins and past.

SECONDARY INFLUENCES

The material presented above describes the most potent and significant planetary influences operating at the location you have designated at the time of your birth. It is these concerns and manifestations that should demand your concentrated attention, and it could be suggested that it is to assimilate and understand this type of experience that you have considered residence in this locale. However, there are additional, less potent influences, that also operate here, due to the geographical latitude at which it is located, a latitude that has special importance for you. These influences will constitute a "subplot" or subsidiary influence while you are here, influences of about one-third the power of the major ones described above, and ones which are apt to manifest in relationships especially -- with either you or your partner acting them out.

Saturn*Pluto:

RELUCTANT METAMORPHOSIS

This is a rather lugubrious locale, and experiences here will tend to be serious, responsible, and concerned with death, duty, and mortality. There is respect for an unassailable authority or for some body of knowledge or tradition, and conservative ideas may serve to close off varied options and conclude outworn manifestations of your identity. Finality is an attribute of this locale, so that decisions made here may be more far-reaching than you can conceive. Individualism, dignity, and quiet resistance to injustice are the positive sides of this zone, while the negative contains the possibility of a very real experience of death or mortality, fascination with the morbid and gloomy, mourning, unwanted burdens, suspension of growth, mortification, and the enforced recognition of personal powerlessness in the face of tyrannical forces or fate. This is where you weigh your own soul and make decisions for the rest of your life, and here the past closes behind you firmly and for good. Dependents and the elderly may pass away, and you are humbled by forces beyond your control in the face of your own mortality and frailty. Inertia, inactivity, and dysfunction may be enforced.

Destruction and transformation are important themes here, so that endings will always be the seeds of new beginnings. There is tremendous power in this locale, power stemming from the awareness that concepts of death, transformation, and mortality must be incorporated into society for its own good. Seeking to overthrow some establishment institution or to transform it to one more responsive to change and growth, you may exhibit profound introversion, resistance to coercion, and personal turmoil in this locale. It is also a place in which fascination with archaeology, the past, history, or geology motivates long hours of research and investigation. The past, as symbol of deep, primitive instincts and earlier social forms, must be incorporated into your daily life somehow. Discipline and compulsion are in conflict here, and phobias and generalized fears may pervade the consciousness. You may feel uncomfortable in large numbers of people and seek isolation and withdrawal, a necessary atmosphere for your slow, painful, inner alchemical transformation.

Mercury*Neptune:

DREAM-INTERPRETER FOR HUMANITY

Your mind and its daily concerns get all inflated in this locale and involved with the cosmic, the unconscious, and the repressed parts of society. Moods are erratic and your ideas spacey and easily influenced (albeit temporarily) by others' input. You are open to idealism, to your own vivid and offbeat imagination, and are very sensitive to social moods, which means you can affect society through your ideas unconsciously. Writers (and lovers) of fantasy, artists, those working in institutions, service professions, or in the creation and distribution of social illusion, such as advertising, movies, graphics, and photography all find imaginative inspiration here, but it is hard to keep your feet on the ground; relationships and career plans exist mostly in the rosy glow of hope. People and the environment take advantage of you, you are often scapegoated by society and may experience addiction or health crises caused by an increased sensitivity to environmental influence, drugs, or allergies. Thinking processes become cloudy, unclear, untidy, highly suggestible, or even neurotic, and negative thinking attracts what it fears the most. You can be scatterbrained, hysterical, and gossipy, find everyday environments full of intrigue and conspiracy, and it's predictably hard to pay the rent while communicating with flying saucers, so society may intervene negatively and frequently.

Reality doesn't "measure up" to expectations -- an inveterate idealism keeps you forever comparing what is to what ought to be. Escapism or neurosis can in rare cases be the result of disorganized thinking processes and occult or mystical obsessions. For all these disadvantages, you may lead a charmed life here as your intuition gives you a view of the road around the next corner, and you instinctively sidestep problems that might devastate one less "tuned in." Conventional guidelines for life dissolve, the lines between imagination and reality blur, while awareness of nuances and subtleties increase. It is too easy for you to exemplify some social myth, so be careful not to feed others' need for a scapegoat or martyr.

The following influence is so weak that it may entirely escape notice. Still, it is an option that can be developed, if desired, and will manifest more strongly if it relates well with your personality or other influences present at this location.

Moon*Venus:

LIFE IS A CABARET

Under the influence of the two most feminine planets, a world of social life, parties, fashion, pretty and valuable things and people besieges you. All the archetypes of woman -- mother, beauty, friendship and love, relatedness, self-esteem, and appetites -- dominate here, and life takes on an elegant, consumeristic, socially motivated, and possibly venal direction. Raising your self-esteem in order to attract love is a preoccupation here, and along the way you may have to explore romantic cravings, the "beautiful people" syndrome, and an attraction, sufficient to challenge idealism, to things and monetary success. You want to rise into the "right" social circles, immerse yourself in sentimental domestic and romantic relationships, and you find that appetite's intensity can subvert greater ambitions. Still, it is a pleasant, comfortable locale, glamorous, exciting, and full of social pleasures, where rich friends may be willing to share their lifestyle.

Obviously, laziness, weight gain, and self-indulgence are dangers here, and motherhood becomes more likely. There is little pressure to accomplish, or to deal with cosmic ideas, so that voluptuous, epicurean, and sensualistic excesses are the perils inherent in the atmosphere of polish, taste, and elegance. Parties, social life, and the indolence, gossip, and fashion usually attendant become important to you. Professional success can be expected in any area that deals with art, beauty, or women, their needs, tastes and concerns. Relationships tend to "sisterhood," regardless of the sex of those involved, the other person usually taking the initiative, introducing you to refinement and cultivated tastes. You could actually become more attractive here, so that sex is readily available, though less passionate than in other localities; you are popular, find a good relationship, and develop a steady, calm, diplomatic, unruffled attitude toward the intrigue in your social circles.

Clearly, this area may pose problems for most men, though it is quite likely that a lot of these feminine aspects get acted out in your relationships, which tend to be strongly desired and dependent, often with ultra-feminine women, whose natures may conform closely with the description above. You act out the role of a matinee idol, pampered and tasteful, and may enjoy women and their company more, though it's hard to get motivated. Attachment to women (including your mother) may be hard to break. The gratification of your appetites and strong awareness of your appearance and vanity can subvert other life goals.

These, then, are the important astrological influences which affect this location, now and in the future. Needless to say, they all won't manifest the moment you arrive, but will indeed emerge as the most powerful psychological potentials over time.

EPILOGUE

This concludes our enumeration and description of the planetary influences, permanent and temporary, that affect the locations that you submitted. As you have observed, some of the information is psychological in nature, as it is the belief of ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY that planets act, not through any mystical "power" or magic, but by paralleling potentials in the human psyche, and in orderly and comprehensible fashion, marking the development of this maturity. It is hoped that you are able in this way to see that there are really no "good" or "bad" locations for you -- that in the process of growing into mature completeness, you will have to experience every psychological possibility. At best, this report will work to inform you what these are for you in the locations you are considering, letting you know what to expect, and so empowering you to be able to utilize the most positive possibilities.
